THE OLD PARTY.
The name Democracy is a tower of strength in the land, from the frozen shores of Maine to the more genial climate of Florida. Everywhere this party abhors the battle cry of the true men, who have never faltered from the responsible duties of citizens, whatsoever the demand might be. Now it is proposed, by some shallow-brained, to throw the name overboard, and in its stead substitute that of Liberal. And why, forsooth, would it be required of us to bury the name Democrat? Only, as we can conjecture, that these Universal Suffrage men may have some excuse for their treachery and desertion from the ranks of the Democratic party. The State was carried, after all, without indorsing the negro, and our disabilities were removed without compromising principles, or honor. Our feet, to-day, is upon the rock of truth, where we have stood since the surrender of the Confederate armies. In our course we have not swerved to the right or the left, but have gone straight ahead, upon principles that we believed and upon which we thought the country could only rest secure. The policy of the campaign as chalked out by the LEDGER, has been pursued throughout the State, regardless of the efforts of some to make it now appear as a Universal Suffrage victory. The great point gained was the election of a Democratic Legislature, which would have all the power of reorganizing the State upon Democratic constitutional principles. The thing has been neatly done, and we are not surprised to see these short-sighted journalists of the Avalanche and the Nashville Banner endeavoring to find some hole to creep into. If Universal Suffrage was the great end, in fact, as they say, the only issue in the canvass, why is it that Democrats all over the State preferred to vote for Democrats, and did so, and did elect the State in preference to the Santer Universal Suffrage candidates? If we read the returns correctly, it can be discovered that the two Brownlows were most ingloriously defeated, and they are known to have advocated Senter and Suffrage. Right in our own midst, why is it that our friends preferred to support Major Townsend, Sam Jones and Cabbins in preference to Low, the poor Suffrage candidate? Why did not the Avalanche support Mr. Low if he was clearly the candidate on the same platform with him, when it was not presumable that the nominees of the Democratic-Conservative ticket would support such imposition upon the people of Tennessee? No, the endeavors of these journalists to produce the impression upon the public mind, that Universal Suffrage has been endorsed by the people of this State, is a stupendous farce, which only excites the hissing of every honest and sensible man in the community. What will be the course pursued by these newly-elected legislators upon the Fifteenth Amendment? Is it supposable that these Democratic members will indorse it, as might be presumed by these Africanized gentry? We think not; but they will put upon it the condemnation seal of Tennessee, to show to the world that we do not willingly accept the issue therein involved; and should we in the future be forced to acquiesce in the infamous outrage, that we do so under protest. The Democratic party is the only great national party that opposes Radicalism, and we shall still continue to act with it; and every true man of the South will give in his adhesion to its principles. The efforts of the Banner and the Avalanche to create a new sectional organization, to be called a Liberal party, should and will meet the condemnation of a majority of the citizens throughout the State. The National Democratic party oppose Universal Suffrage, and will continue to do so as long as there is hope of defeating it.

THE BEST EXCUSE UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.
The editor of the Appeal, in endeavoring to excuse himself from the charge made on yesterday that he had very lately been a warm advocate of imperialism, says he was a fool then, but since has learned better. We would like to know if this Solomon quill-driver has found out that he was once a fool who is he is not one still. But to break his headlong leap over the LEDGER office, he states further, as an excuse, and goes on to remark in the same connection: "If the present editor will look a little carefully to what we actually did say in the LEDGER rather than trust his impressions on the subject, we think he will find us about as consistent as it is required by the custom of the day one should be.

Now, if the editor of the Appeal is disposed to be as honest as the custom of the day, we would inform him that he is a long way off from Christianity, and, as a preacher, should not be allowed to pray in public.

This ex-minister and ex-imperialist doesn't covet the reputation of being as consistent as the best, but as much so as is required by custom. Well, that will do. The excuse, we presume, is sufficient.

The Banner says: "It will be seen that only two Senators of the last General Assembly—Messrs. Keith and Nelson, both liberal Republicans—were re-elected. Nor does the name of a single Proscriptionist appear on the list. The Stokers are evidently not wanted in the Senate. Only some five or six extremists were elected to the House. There is a fair sprinkling of Suffrage Republicans, but Conservatives are largely in the majority."

BY TELEGRAPH.
LATEST TO-NIGHT.
Dispatches to the Southwestern Press Association.

NEW YORK.
New York, August 10.—The President and Secretary Fish left last evening for Washington.

In the Superior Court, Judge Cardozo, yesterday, delivered an opinion in the case of certain parties, against the Merchants' Union Express Company, argued before him three months since, denying the application to remove Mr. Allen, the Receiver, and appoint a successor.

The steamboat St. John, on her upward trip, Saturday night, collided with a collier just above the Highlands. The shock was quite severe, throwing the passengers out of their berths. Fortunately, the steamer received little damage.

The Siamese twins arrived last evening.

Brick Pomeroy intends to run for State Senator next winter.

A meeting of the railroad managers was held in Boston to-day to take action relative to competition in freight to the West. Among other measures taken on the Susquehanna railroad war was the issue here of orders to sheriffs along the line of road to enforce a decree of court and assist Fish in his duties as receiver. Similar action was taken at Albany. The apshot of the whole case at present is that the Albany party have the most men, but the Fish party, thus far, have been the most successful, as their Superintendent is running the road.

The Sun's correspondent has had an interview with John Quincy Adams. The latter will accept the Democratic nomination for Governor of Massachusetts if nominated, though he does not desire it. He approves of Secretary Fish's foreign policy, but does not favor territorial expansions. He thinks the Democrats will soon control the Southern States, that the Fifteenth Amendment is invalid, that signs of dissolution are apparent in the Republican ranks, that the Democrats should accept negro suffrage and other inevitable results of the war, and nominate John T. Hoffman for President.

Dr. Goldmark, who was implicated in the revolutionary affairs of 1848, and who some time ago returned to his native land, has entered into contract with the Hungarian Minister for the defense of the country, for the manufacture of ten million cartridges for the Hungarian army.

The steamer Germania, which left here on the 31, was lost off Cape Race with 60,000 dollars in specie.

CINCINNATI.
Cincinnati, O., August 10.—The case of General Young, Supervisor of Internal Revenue, is now in progress in this city. The doors are closed to reporters. There are rumors abroad that fourteen charges have been preferred against the Supervisor; that General Young demanded the privilege of having the testimony published, but the demand was refused. A threat, it is said, accompanied the refusal, that in case a reporter was present, Young would be denied the privilege of cross-examination. A photographic reporter has attended all sessions of the Examining Board, but it is understood the report he is preparing is for the use of the Commission. It is rumored also that on being refused permission to have the testimony published, Young prepared a dispatch to Mr. D. L. Hanna, asking the privilege of publication, the dispatch he offered the Board to be sent by them. They not only refused to send it, but would not allow Young to send it. Asessor Shaw, of the Second District, is to come in next for his share. The exact nature of charges is not known.

FOREIGN.
MADRID, August 9.—A fresh conspiracy has been discovered in this city. Numerous arrests have been made, including seventeen gen d'arma. Thirty arrests have taken place at Burgos. The leader of the Carlist bands in Leon has been taken prisoner and shot.

New York Cotton—August 10, 11 a.m.
Lower grades are in more request for export contracts; for future delivery, strong, and the principal feature in the market. Sales at all ports yesterday, 285; do. receipts, 267; receipts at New York, 722.
